The Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, Jan. 31, 1917.

THE WEATHER.

Conditions.
A storm of marked intensity has moved southeastward to Colorado from the north Pacific states attended by snows and rains in the northern states from Minnesota and Iowa westward to the north Pacific coast and rains in northern California.

The indications are that the storm will move rapidly eastward and be attended by snows and rains over the northern states and rains in southern and central states east of the Mississippi River within the next forty-eight hours.

It will be followed by a pronounced cold wave over the middle west and southwest and it is probable that decidedly colder weather will spread over the eastern and southern states by Thursday.

The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be fresh west, fair Wednesday, followed by rain or snow Thursday. Middle Atlantic coast, moderate, variable, becoming fresh east, overcast weather followed by rain.

Forecast.
Northern New England: Fair and colder Wednesday; Thursday, snow.
Southern New England: Overcast Wednesday, probably followed by rain or snow Wednesday night; colder Thursday.

Membership of Instruction Class is Increasing—Young Ladies' Sodality Meet to Arrange Plans. J. K.
Sagne to Speak at Men's Meeting.

The instruction class of the Federated church held their regular meeting in the church on Tuesday afternoon. The regular course of Bible study was the programme of the afternoon. The interest in this work is increasing and several new members were added to the class. Rev. A.
W. Burdon is the teacher.

J. K. Sagne to Address Men's Meeting Plans for the February meeting of the Men's club of St. Andrew's church have been completed and the speaker of the evening will be J. K.
Sagne, of the appraisal office in New York city. Mr. Sagne will speak on the topic, "The New Democracy." The committee have arranged also an interesting program which will be enjoyed during the social hour following Mr. Sagne's address.

Young Ladies' Sodality Meets.
A meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality of the St. Mary's church was recently held at which time it was decided to hold an entertainment in the near future. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the affair. There was a large attendance at the meeting.

Notes.
George Johnson of North Main street spent the week-end as the guest of friends in Noank.

James Mullin has accepted a position with the Hopkins & Allen Arms Co. and is working at that place on the night shift.

James Timmins, a student at St.
John's seminary, has returned to his studies after spending several days at his home on Smith avenue.

John Walsh of North Main street has returned to Rochester, N. Y., to resume his studies at St. John's seminary after spending a few days at his home here.

Sunday School Teachers Met.
The Sunday school teachers of the Broadway Congregational church held an informal meeting in the Sunday school rooms Tuesday night, when matters of importance relative to the Sunday school work were discussed.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN
NOSTRILS AND HEAD
Says Cream Applied to Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils, and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing, no more headache, dizziness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

JUDGE REED TAKES PRISONS

Testimony Completed Tuesday Afternoon in New London Damage Action—Motion for Non-Suit Denied by the Court—Jury Selected for February Session to be Held in New London.

When the testimony had been completed and the arguments made in the case of Anthony A. Garvey of New London vs. Frank Scialappa and others also of New London, Judge Joel H.
Reed took the case under advisement.
The case was then set for trial on Tuesday afternoon. It is an action for damages resulting from an alleged fall into an excavation in front of the defendant's store on Bank street, New London, in November of 1914.

When court came in Tuesday morning, Frank Scialappa, defendant, was called to the stand and through interpreters told his story. Antonio Piscetelli, Mauro Zito, Antonio Drago and others testified for the defense.

A motion for non-suit was denied by Judge Reed. The case was briefly argued by Attorney Arthur T. Keefe of New London and Attorney Spaulding of New Haven and then Judge Reed took the case.

The case of Jeanne Wolfe of Mystic against two Myscians was then started. It is a thousand dollar damage action for alleged assault. The plaintiff claims she was assaulted by the two men and badly injured. The court had trouble in restraining the witness who persisted in interrupting the lawyers and who did not confine herself to answering their questions.
She was on the stand when court adjourning for the day. The case will be continued today (Wednesday).

Tuesday morning a jury was drawn for the February session of the court which opens in New London.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF POULTRY ASSOCIATION

Couldn't Settle Breach of Peace Case.
At the city court session on Monday two young colored girls were presented for breach of the peace. Judge J.
H. Barnes allowed Rev. B. W. Williams to try and smooth matters over in the consultation room but the mister was unable to settle the trouble between the two girls and the case had to go to court again. Rev. Mr.
Williams expressed himself as grateful to Judge Barnes for allowing him to interest himself in the girls' case.
